Dear Chapter Advisors,

Get ready to think, act and lead by following our Alpha Gamma Delta Purpose at the 2009 TLC! Included in this packet you will find a list of chapter assignments. Be sure to check the list to determine which TLC your chapter should attend.

In addition to attending workshops and activities with our collegians, advisors will have a special opportunity to attend a customized track of workshops designed specifically for our alumnae. Many levels of collegiate and alumnae leadership development will be addressed through sessions featuring the Education Committee, The Leadership Institute—Women with Purpose, Inc. and the Alpha Gamma Delta Foundation. Most importantly, however, we are going to have a fun weekend with our sisters!

If you have questions, please contact Deanna Bogie Conaty, Event/Merchandising Coordinator at International Headquarters, at 317-872-2655 or dconaty@alphagammadelta.org. Join your sisters for an energizing and inspiring weekend. We look forward to seeing you at TLC 2009!

Loyally in epsilon pi,

benefits of attending:

Without the loving support of our advisors, our Alpha Gam collegiate chapters would not thrive as they do today. In order to continue providing this service to our collegians, it is important for our advisors to continue to learn how to interact with the millennial generation, how to lead a chapter effectively and how to handle difficult conversations. In addition, chapter advisors will have the opportunity to meet other chapter advisors and share ideas and concerns. We are going to have fun, make memories and learn a lot about ourselves and our collegians. We can't wait to see you there!
