

Facilitator Bio

Colleen Coffey, Contract Facilitator

Colleen Coffey is committed to challenging the stigma that surrounds mental disorders and puts that commitment to practice working full time as the Program Manager for The National Mental Health Awareness Campaign. She is a doctoral student in the field of Leadership. Colleen holds a Bachelors Degree in Social Work from Belmont University and a Masters in College Student Affairs from Eastern Illinois University. At EIU, she served as an Associate Resident Director to the Greek Court housing community and an advisor to the college Panhellenic. As a consultant for Phired Up Productions, she co-authored and published the first book on sorority recruitment: I Heart Recruitment: The Eight Steps to Limitless Possibilities for Sororities. She has been actively involved in sorority life since her undergraduate days, having served the Alpha Sigma Tau Sorority in several capacities on the national and local levels. Colleen volunteers her time with The Nashville Council on Children's Mental Health and has been a member of the Association of Fraternity Advisors for six years where she is currently serving as a member of the Virtual Seminar Series Committee.

Facilitator Bio

Erin Strine, Training and Development Manager

Erin has a Bachelor's degree in Kinesiology and a Master's degree in College Student Personnel Administration from James Madison University. Erin has previously served as a Fraternity and Sorority Advisor and has also worked for a non-profit honor society as the chapter specialist. Erin has facilitated for the National Association of Campus Activities National Convention, Sigma Nu's College of Chapters, JMU's prospective population, and has developed and presented many leadership sessions for a variety of campus leaders. Erin is a member of the Association of Fraternity Advisors (AFA), Indiana Society of Association Executives (ISAE), and Association of Training and Development (ASTD). She has previously volunteered for AFA by serving on their first timers committee.

Facilitator Bio

Julie Kendall, Contract Facilitator

Julie Kendall is the Senior Coordinator of Leadership Training in the Credit Division at Kohl's Corporate Headquarters in Menomonee Falls, Wisconsin. Her main responsibilities include designing and facilitating monthly training programs for the GOLD (a Generation of Leaders Discovered) Institute and the Lessons on Leadership Series; two programs that she built for the Credit Executives. Prior to joining Kohl's, Julie worked in Residence Life at Ball State University and Eastern Illinois University. When she worked at EIU, she also served as the Academic Advisor for Delta Tau Delta Fraternity, facilitating academic GOALS (Guaranteed Opportunities to Achieve, Learn, and Succeed) programs. Julie earned her Bachelor's degree in Organizational Communication from the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater and her Master's degree in Organizational and Professional Communication Development from Ball State University. She also volunteers with 20-somethings at Elmbrook Church in Brookfield, Wisconsin.

Facilitator Bio

Erin Fischer, Contract Facilitator

Erin Fischer is the director of CKI, a global service organization serving college and university students around the world. She graduated from Indiana University with a degree in Public relations, but has always gravitated towards working with students of all ages. She started her career as a camp director, and worked for the YMCA for several years before transitioning into her current job at Kiwanis International. She has had the opportunity to train youth and adults on the hot topic of servant leadership, from Hawaii to Brazil and everywhere in between. In addition to her career, Erin is also volunteering for her college sorority, Phi Mu.

Facilitator Bio

Ellen Shertzer, Contract Facilitator

Ellen Shertzer works part-time for Indiana University as the Greek Alumni Coordinator and is a full-time mother and wife. She earned her Bachelor of Arts in Public Communication and Human Relations from Western Illinois University and her Master of Science in Higher Education Administration from Iowa State University. Ellen has spent the last 9 years working in higher education administration at Northern Illinois University, Iowa State University, and University of Maryland College Park. She has experience in fraternity and sorority life, student programming, and alumni association management.

Facilitator Bio

Jill Lyons, Program Coordinator

Jill is the Program Coordinator for The Leadership Institute. She is a recent graduate from Valparaiso University where she received her Bachelor's in English and Communications. During her collegiate experience, she served as Financial Vice President and Parliamentarian for her sorority, President of Mortar Board, and an Ambassador in Admissions. Currently, she is a volunteer for the Gamma Phi Beta International Sorority and is a member of IndyAmbassadors and the Association of Fraternity Advisors.

